

SPECIAL RESEARCH FUND 2018
CALL FOR DOCTORAL GRANTS
IN THE FRAMEWORK OF
SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY CENTER IN UKRAINE
SUPPORTED BY THE EUROPEAN UNION

STCU is pleased to announce the call for its 2018 Doctoral Research Grant in Economy, Law or Political Sciences. The research topic shall be related to developments and trends of chemical, biological, radiological or nuclear weapons non proliferation; strategic trade control; or national and international trade control systems.

Eligibility: The Doctoral Research Grant is open to postgraduate students (regardless citizenship) in social sciences holding an Master 's degree from an University established in Ukraine, Georgia, Azerbaijan, and Moldova. Applicants will have to be registered in a Ph.D. program in EU university and shall have two supervisors. One shall hold an academic position in the EU university where he/she will be registered and the other shall hold an academic position in an STCU country university.

The STCU Special research fund is offering to a doctoral student a four-year contract. The contract starts on September 2018 (subject to validation of the Master's degree). If duly justified, the start date may be changed at the applicant's request, subject to the mentors' agreement. No contract may start later than November.

The selected doctoral student will be hosted simultaneously by the universities of his/her supervisors or with their agreement by any research center or universities conducting research related to his/her doctorate.

The completion of the research may entail special funding (for example, to finance data collection, partly or entirely). The budget required to complete the research must be assessed and presented in the application.

All information and documents required for the application must be English. The application form and the list of necessary documents are attached to the present call.

Application should be send to STCU by email phd.grant@stcu.int. The deadline for the call for applications is 15 May 2018 at midday, Brussels time.

Late or incomplete applications will not be considered

If you should have any questions, please contact Maria Espona at maria.espona@stcu.int .